

City Commission to meet virtually on June 15

Release date: Monday, June 13, 2022

Contact: Torey Hollingsworth, Director, Office of the City Commission, 937-333-3590

The Dayton City Commission will hold a meeting on Wednesday, June 15, beginning at 6 p.m. Due to COVID-19 exposure, the meeting will be held remotely and will be available to watch live at daytonohio.gov/govtv. City Commission Chambers will not be open for this meeting.

Citizens interested in making public comment related to calendar items of a remote Commission meeting are asked to do so in writing. Comments may be sent to CCOClerk@daytonohio.gov. Written citizen comments received prior to the City Commission meeting will be distributed to the City Commission in advance of the virtual meeting. Written citizen comments from the virtual meeting will be posted on the City's website with meeting minutes.

Citizens who wish to make the Commission aware of an issue not related to the Commission meeting calendar may also do so. These items will be distributed to the Commission for reference and included with the minutes as well.

Submitted comments must follow Commission meeting guidelines and must not contain threatening statements or vulgar language. Any improper comment may result in the comment being determined as out of order. Additionally, comments should not be longer than three pages in length.

In response to COVID-19 and in the interest of public health and welfare, the City of Dayton issued an emergency proclamation on March 12, 2020, and passed Emergency Ordinance 31797-20 on March 18, 2020. These permit City Commissioners to attend Commission meetings and public attendance via electronic means during an emergency.

###

FOLLOW US

Visit the City of Dayton newsroom

